Spring Hill College

Mobile Alabama

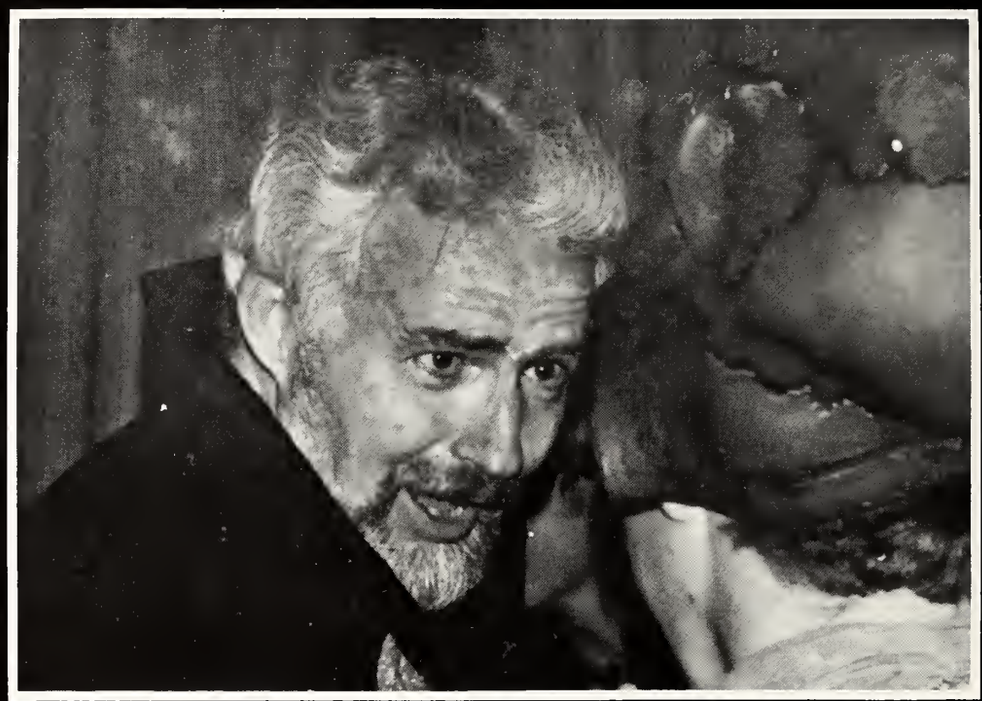
We never stop to wonder

till a person's gone

we never yearn

to know him

till he's traveled on



When someone is around us
we never stop to ask hey what's beneath your mirror
hey who's beneath your mask

We never stop to wonder

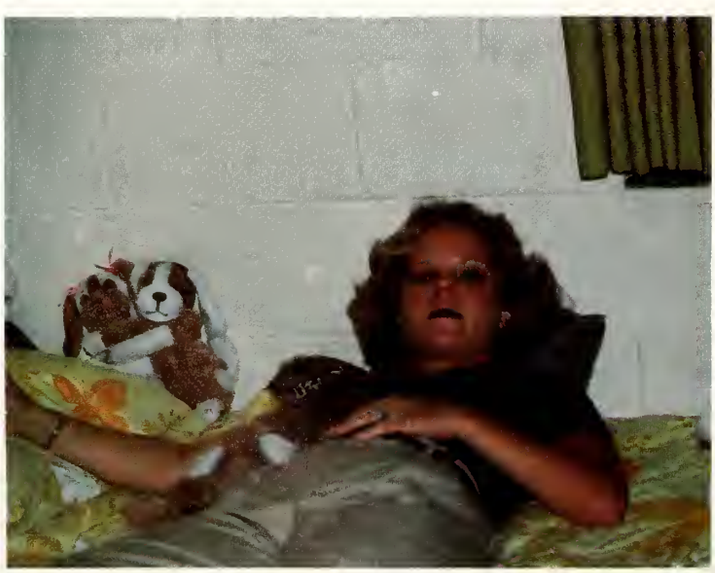
till a person's gone

we never yearn

to know him

till he's packed

and traveled on



When someone is around us
we don't know what we're seeing we take a polaroid picture to find the human being

We never stop to wonder

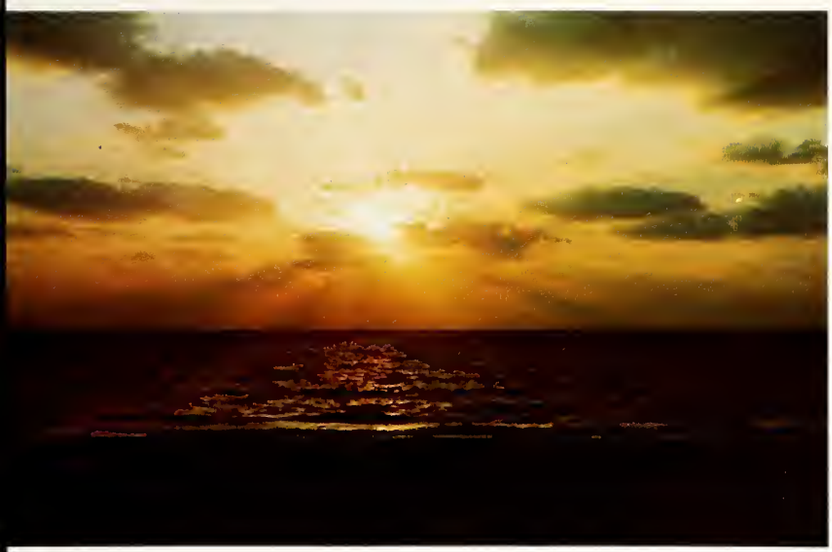
till a person's gone

we never yearn

to know him

till he's packed

and traveled on



I think perhaps tomorrow
I'll try to make a friend to really get to know him
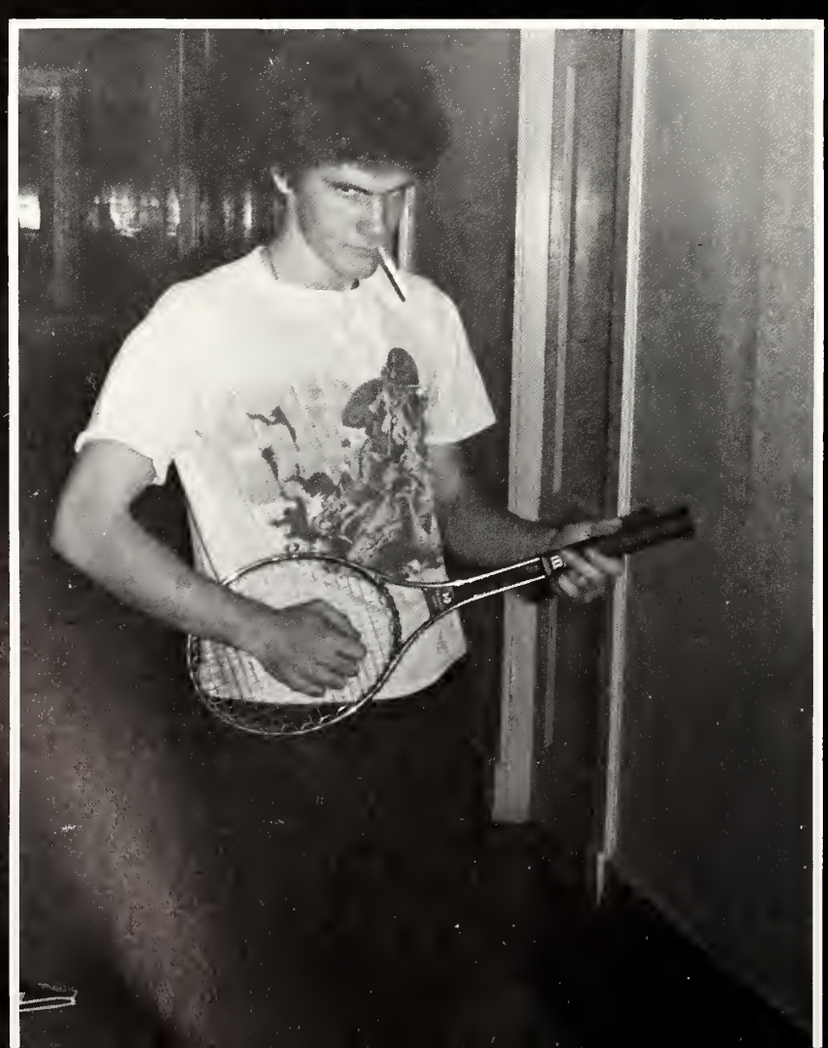
instead of pretend



We never stop to wonder

till a person's gone

we never yearn

to know him

till he's packed

and traveled on

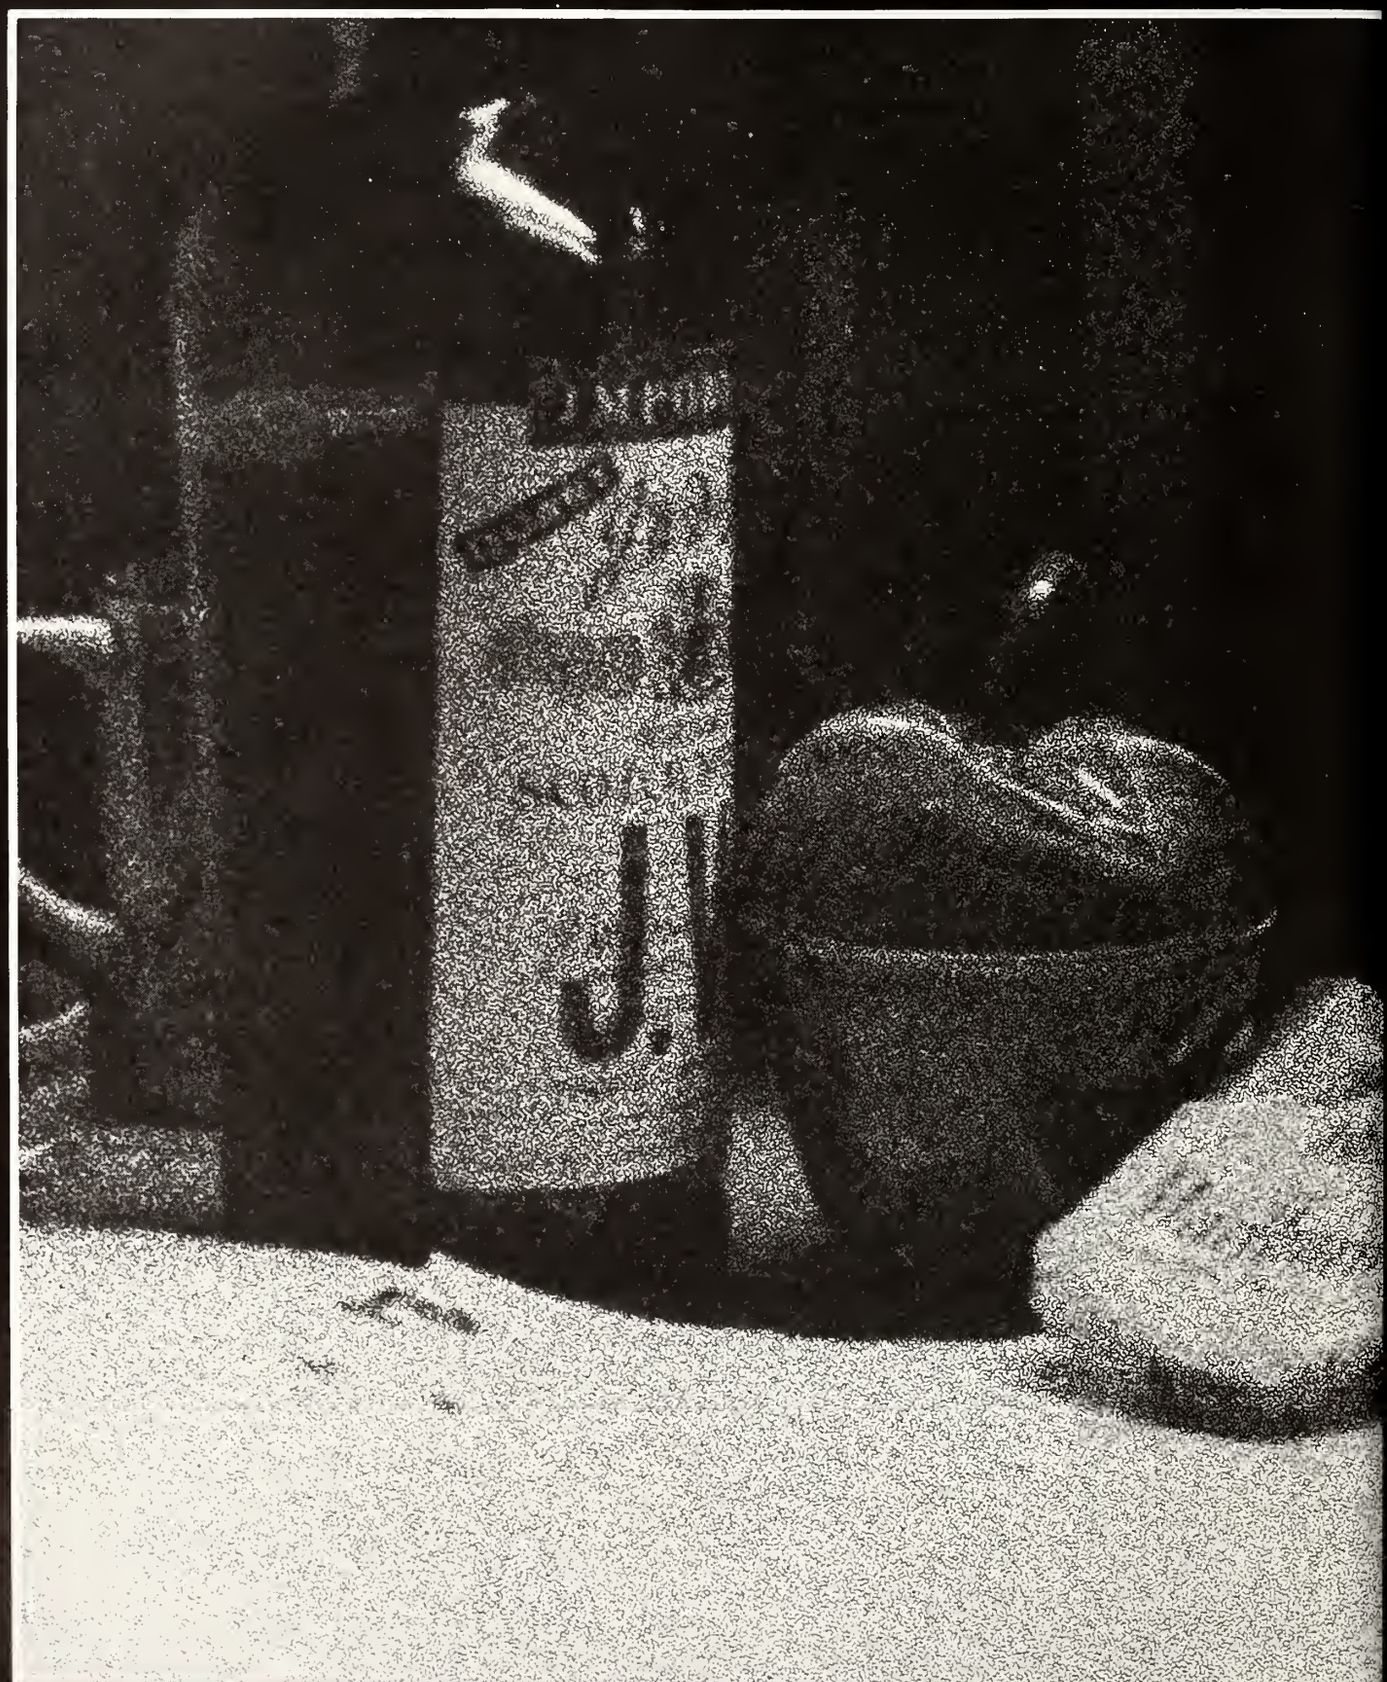
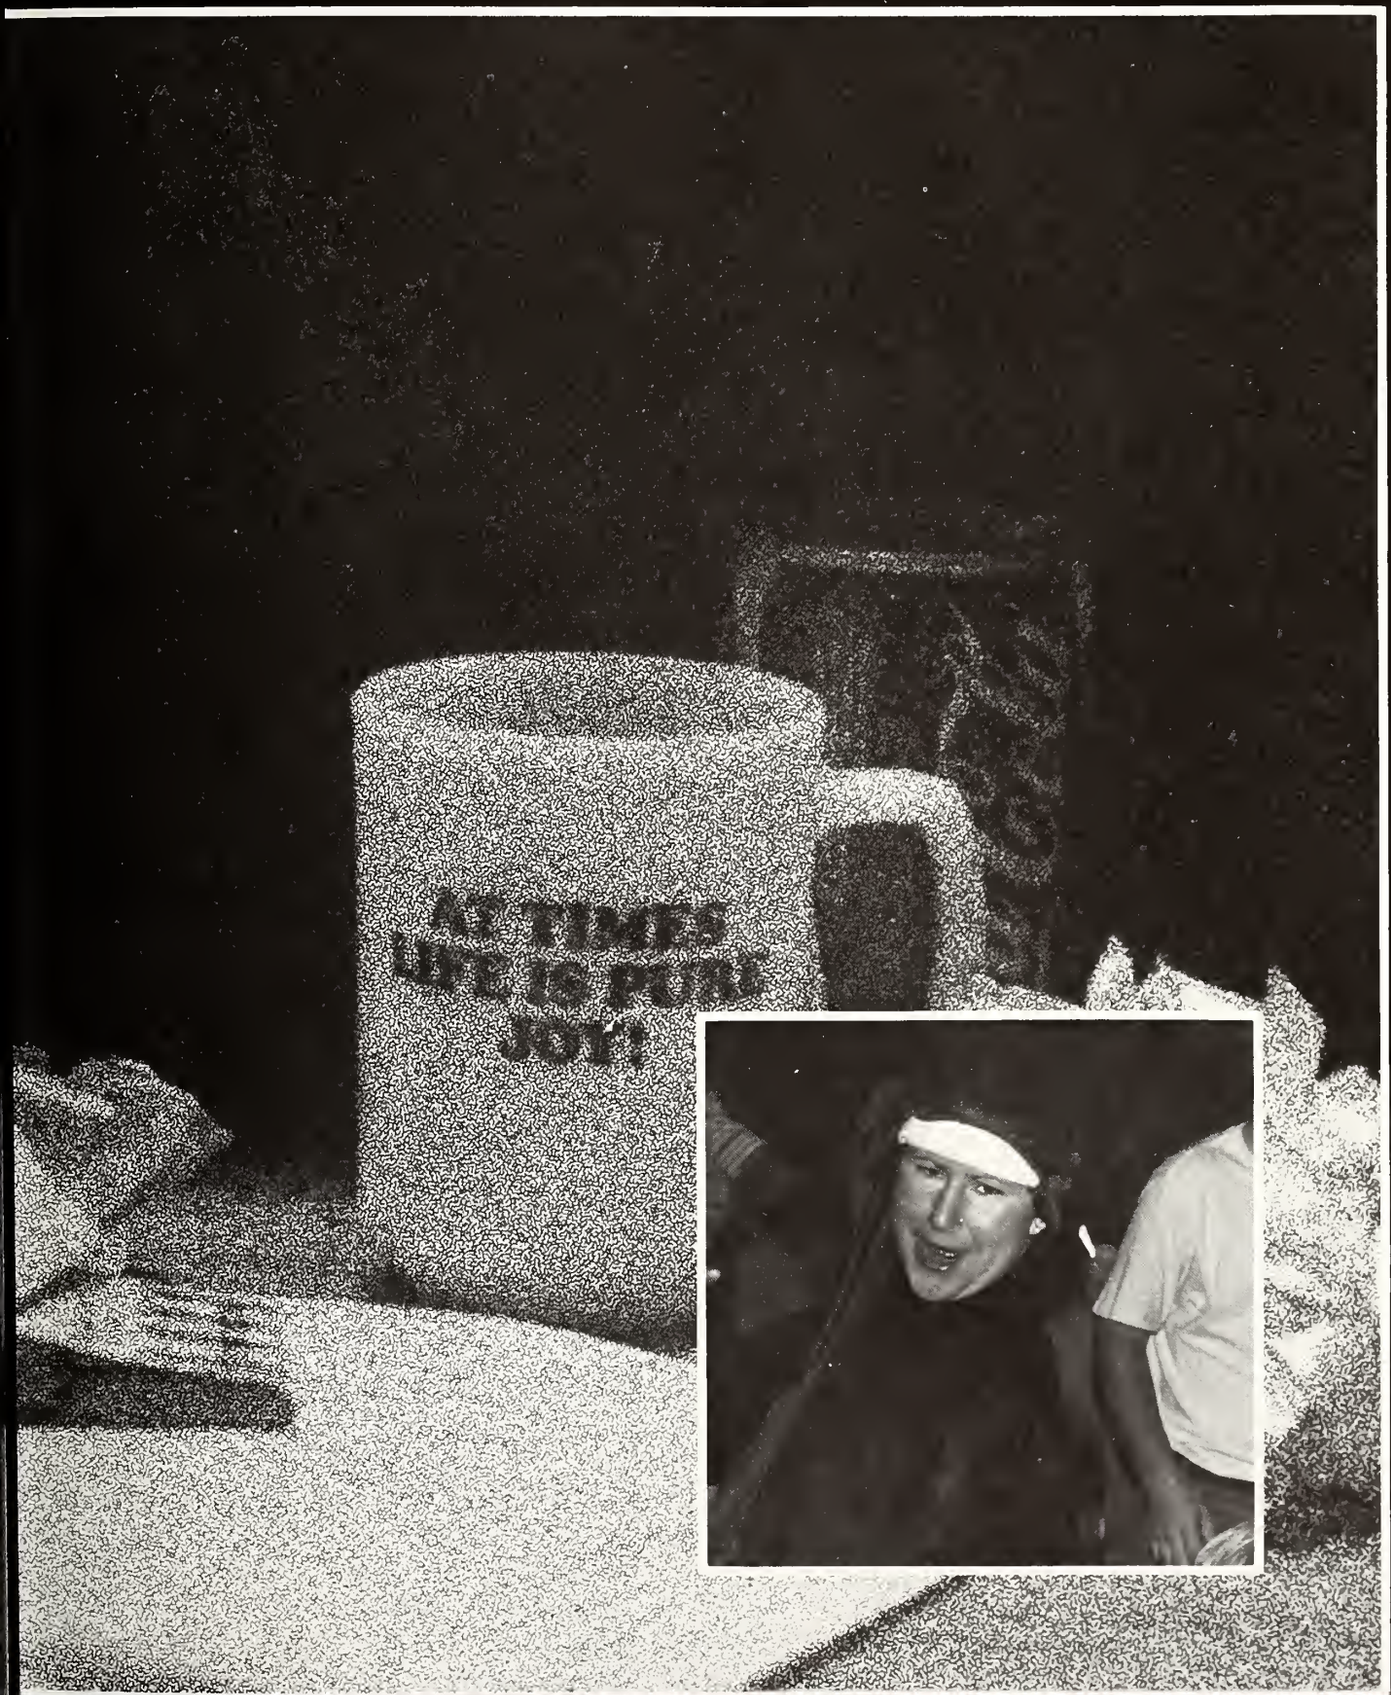
CAMPUS LIFE





AT TIMES
LIFE IS PURE
JOY!

ORIENTATION - CLASS OF 1981

Bob Hulseman files through his first line at Spring Hill College.

Anne Dacovich moves her personal "junk" into O'Leary dormitory.

Cindy Bowes and Ann Murphy settle into their new rooms.

Christy Omohundro thinks Spring Hill College is Sesame Street.

Frank Gonzalez watches as Vladimir Martinez prepares to taste his first cup of Morrison's coffee.

Nancy Shore and Joe Deidato look over the week's activities together.

Mary Smith points out the features of the Quadrangle to freshmen.

POWDER PUFF

Larry Howe, Pat Boggs and Karen Pendergast show their determination to win the game.

The freshman lineup practices some new strategies prior to the big game.

Karen Ryan seems to be ready to "go places" when she gets possession of the football.

Dancing the night away is Kathy Ellis at the Annual Powder Puff dance.

Charlie Postler's sense of humor seems to amuse Mary Huber as they enjoy a drink - or two - at the dance.

ROYAL LICHTENSTEIN CIRCUS

Clown expresses amazement - or horror? - at the number of students skipping classes to attend the circus.

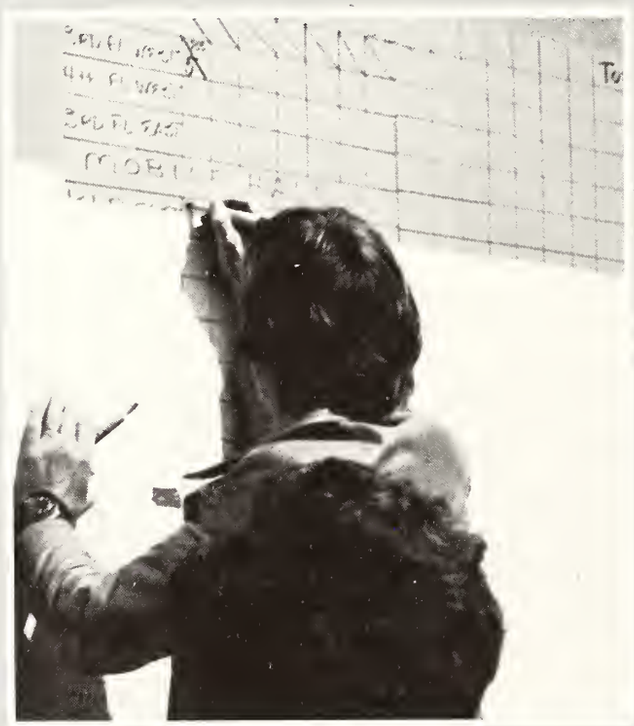
A circus clown shows his skill of eating flames to an attentive crowd.

Andy LaPointe laughs at a clown - that isn't a teacher.

Mike O'Donohue seems skeptical - or maybe he just can't see over the crowd.

SPRING OLYMPICS

The First Annual Spring Olympics were held in early March. They consisted of several ridiculous events such as the chariot race, greased balloons and greased pole, some arm wrestling and many other hilarious catagories. The student life division of the college sponsored the olympics with a campus organization sponsoring each event, individually. A group by the name of the 'Asshallers' from Assumption Hall were the lucky reciepients of the overall winners. There was a large turnout for this years Olympics, and we hope to see an even bigger crowd next year!



Phil Drlicka speeding through campus - Look out for the campus cop, Phil!

Dan Lenoir looks like he could use a little soap.

Sue Sauget 'slides' to victory thanks to the blind chariot horse

Ron Donohoe can't decide which way is up - Maybe it was that drink before the contest Ron!

We can't really say much more about Chris Moore in this picture other than his teammates are cheering him on - The publisher would probably censor what we really wanted to say!

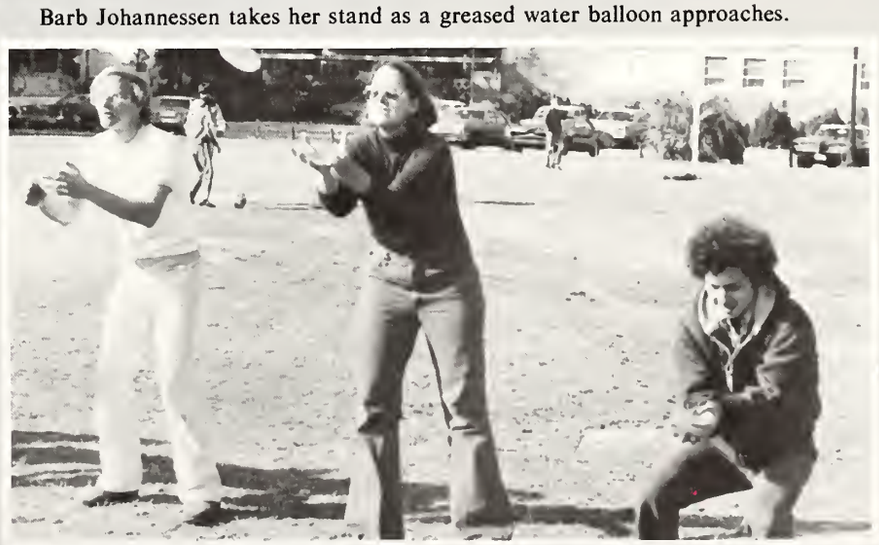
Mari Crouch prepares to fling her frisbee while Mike Hall and Kip Sharpe discuss her 'form'!

Really Bird, couldn't you find some cleaner water to take a bath in?

Pat Zebouni flails her opponent with a dainty pillow as spectators duck from any flying debrie.

Of course there is always food - By Morrisons naturally!

Barb Johannessen takes her stand as a greased water balloon approaches.



PARENT'S WEEKEND

"Hey don't I know you?" asks Mr. Salter of a rather amuzed Fr. Lambert.

Mr. Nolan seems to find the parents reception a bit delightful.

John Hafner discusses his "brilliant" students with parents.

Kevin Sweeney takes a "legitimate" break from classes to show Mr. and Mrs. Murphy around the campus.

Fr. Paul Tipton, recalls the good ole' days with Mr. and Mrs. Callahan.

Mrs. Mary Kleiss and Friend are somewhat pleased with the students neat and clean appearance.

Mr. O'Connor checks out Morrisons classy fountain punchbowl displayed at the parents reception.

Do parents really smoke and drink funny things like the students?

Fr. Derussy seems enchanted with the parents.

HONORS CONVOCATION

Teacher of the year, Dr. John Hafner, addresses the students.

Ms. Margaret Rose Simon receives the Education award.

Mr. Ken Stickney, a recipient of Summa cum laude.

Mr. Joseph Ciattei receives the Philosophy and Math awards.

Honors students sit patiently in St. Joseph's Chapel awaiting awards.

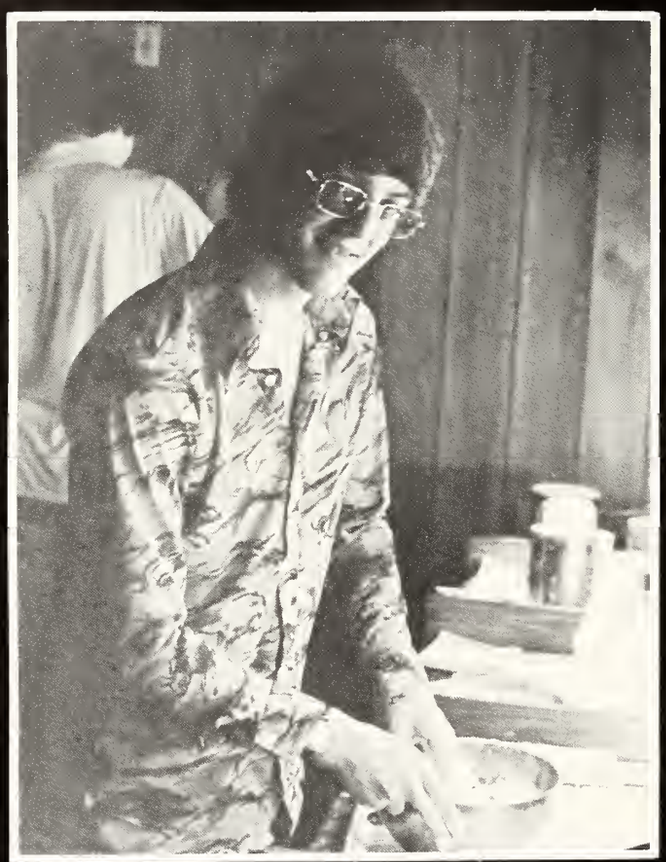
Mr. Mark McMahon announces the 1978 Alpha Sigma Nu members.

The highly qualified staff members watch the awards ceremony.

Ms. Linda Padden receives an honor's award.

Ms. Ana Diaz receives her award at Honors convocation.

Honors recipients listen attentively as award nominees are announced.



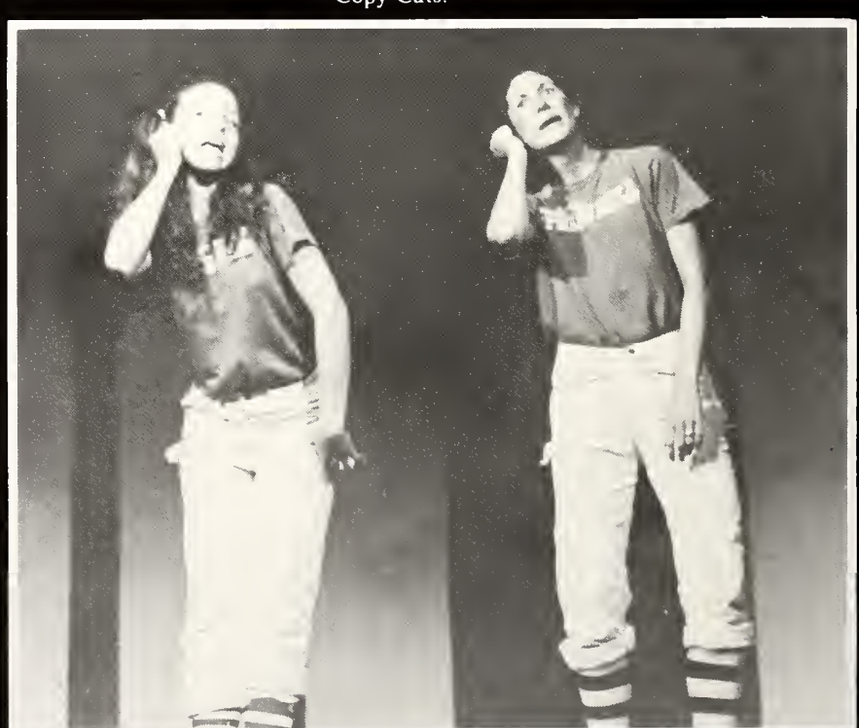
Don Lococo prepares the batter for making french donuts which are always served at the coffee house.

The Acadamia Nuts (alias, Kevin Whelan, Steve Wiswell and Gerry Reynolds) pose with another dummy.

COFFEE HOUSE

Operated entirely by the students of Spring Hill College, the Coffee House offers a wide variety of entertainment, such as musicians, poets, dancers and comedians. Located in the College Inn, the Coffee House provides a relaxed atmosphere of informal entertainment also serving coffee and snacks.

John Mullin adjusts the microphone for his next song.



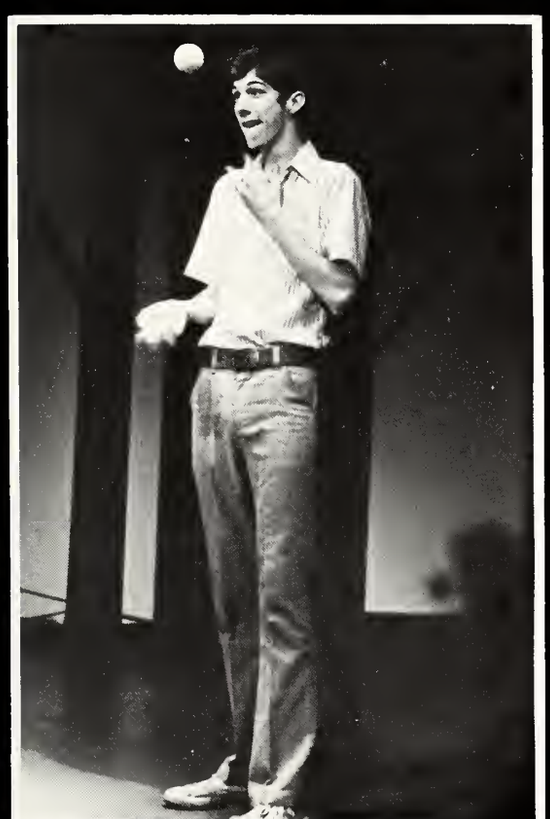
Connie Franco and Felix Hicks perform one of their infamous numbers known as the Copy Cats.

Beside playing the guitar, Joe Feighan performs almost all his own original work.

Steve Wiswell has mastered how to juggle at SHC, even if it is the only thing he learned!

Coffee House chairperson, Joycelyn Moody, takes a coffee break from the hectic schedule out front.

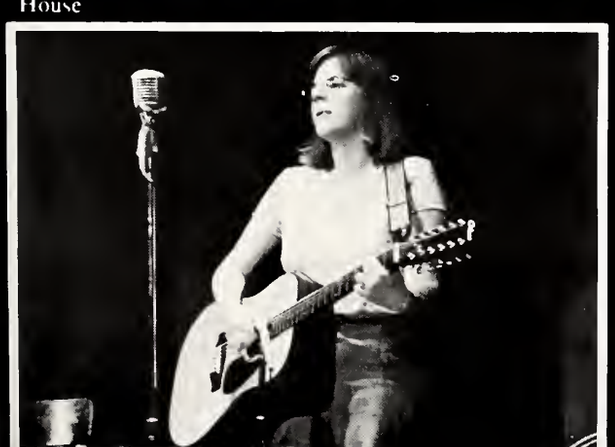
As part of the comedy routine, Kevin Whelan sneezes a little old age into the audience.

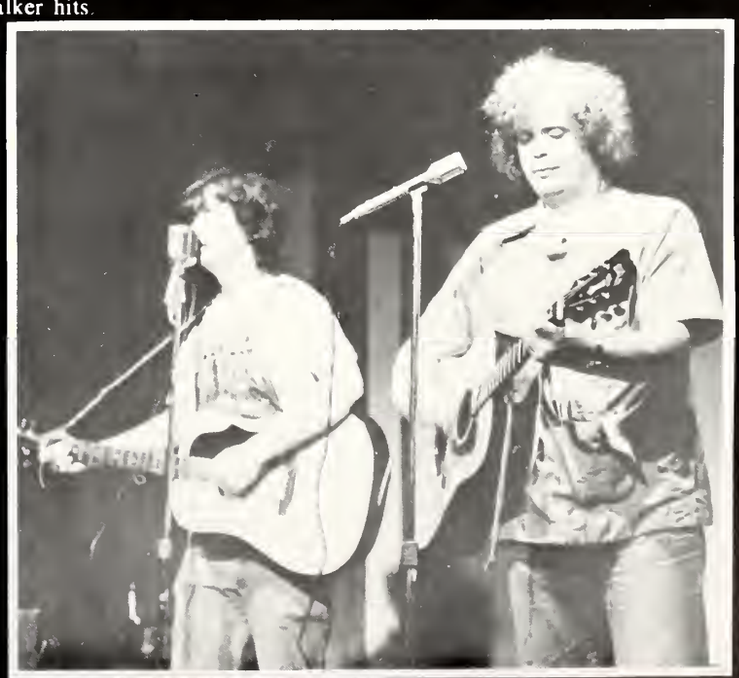


Lydia Smith also plays and sings to patrons of the Coffee House

Donna Malec and Betsy Speck provide a relaxed style of easy music for the Coffee House atmosphere.

John and Taylor Henry have become the all times favorites at the Coffee House, singing anything from original songs, to John Prine and Jerry Jeff Walker hits.





HOMECOMING WEEKEND

Peggy Hawkins of the Development office, helps the alumni check in for the Homecoming Weekend festivities.

Mr. Tim Fink, once time dean of students at SHC enjoys himself at the dinner dance during the weekend for alumni.

Many of the Alumni busied themselves by playing in the tennis tournament offered on Saturday of Homecoming Weekend.

Father Matthews of the Development and Planning office seems to find the alumni quite enchanting and friendly.

Fr. Paul Tipton, President of the College, made several award presentations during the dinner dance held on Saturday. (Below).

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Motions are carried when President Jim McGah authoritively puts the hammer down.

The Student Government is the official organ representing the entire student body and has an obligation to serve the student body by representing student opinions, attitudes, needs, and desires to the proper college authorities. By encompassing a wide variety of interests and activities in its services, the Student Government provides entertainment for students in the form of weekend movies and frequent dances. It offers intellectual stimulation for the more serious student through its lecture series program and its cultural film series. The Student Government also operates the T.O.H. and the game room, both of which provide hours of leisure and fun for every campus student. Finally, if not for Student Government fees and the allocation of these fees by S.G., many clubs and organizations would be limited in their activities due to lack of funds.

Margaret Lagatutta and Linda Padden can still laugh knowing that they are missing a party by attending an S.G. meeting.

We knew S.G. reps were amazing, but how do you get your foot to do that Dave?

PHI ETA SIGMA

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

MARINE BIOLOGY CLUB

The 1977-1978 members of the Marine Biology Club are, from left to right: Mike Collins, Fr. Gerald Regan, Andres Cordova, Bill Trufant, Al Martin, and Kathey Moore.

The Marine Biology Club's purpose is to provide further knowledge for interested students in the areas of Marine life and study. The organization moderated by Father Gerald Regan of the Biology Department, partakes in various outdoor activities and several trips to the Mobile Bay.

MOBILE CLUB

The purpose of the Mobile Club is to provide commuter students with a sense of belonging to the Spring Hill College community and to give them opportunities for fuller participation in campus activities. The membership for the club is open to all at the college in good standing. Due to the fact that the majority of the Mobile club members are commuters and work at local businesses in the Mobile area, it was virtually impossible to gather them all together for a group picture, so shown below are the officers for this year. The club room is located in the College Inn on the East side.

The officers for the 1977-1978 school year are Paul England (vice president), Ken Courington (executive secretary), Joey Betbeze (president), Barry Cooney (secretary), and Bill Bunch (treasurer).

SPRING HILL CHORALE

The Spring Hill College Chorale is composed of students from the college along with a few select alumni dedicated to promoting the Chorale as a service, social and cultural ensemble. Under the direction of Mr. Ira Swingle, the Chorale puts on an annual Christmas and Spring Concert, along with regularly singing at the eleven o'clock mass on Sundays. They also perform for the graduating class and parents at the baccalaureate mass in May. The 1977-1978 Chorale members are: Pat Noletto, Sheila Haggerty, Laura Dillon, Jean Faser, Lydia Smith, Kathy Courtney, Trish Zdanis, Diane Brown, Pam Rayfield, Pat Hood, Suzanne MacDonnell, Karen Kuers, Valerie Ellis, Carl Heumann, Jim Mowrey, Pete Foote, Robert Baird, Bob Curran, Joe Feighan, Paul Divito, Andy McCabe, Bob Schlitt, Katie McCormick, Kathy McFadden.

FOLK GROUP

The Spring Hill College Folk Group is an organization for any student who is interested in singing. The group sings basically for the Sunday afternoon mass held in the Assumption Hall Chapel but this year they also expanded their service to many private ceremonies in the Mobile community. They also helped in the programming of a mass which was aired on television for those people unable to attend a church service.

YENNI PLAYERS

Under the direction of Mr. Michael Kaffer, theatre at Spring Hill has become a popular form of expression for the theatrically inclined, and an equally popular form of entertainment for those students not so inclined. Although working with limited space and equipment, the Yenni players have managed to stage four major productions this year, all of which played to almost completely packed houses. "Waiting for Godot" and "Murder in the Cathedral" were produced in the fall semester. "Knight of the Burning Pestle" and "The Real Inspector Hound" were produced during the spring semester. Although all the pictures shown here are of the cast, it is important to remember all the students who worked so diligently in the several crews.

"A funny thing happened on the way to the theatre (or castle) tonight."

Barb Johannessen explains family matters to Bob Curran and Lella Brooks.

Laura Kaffer pleas with her father (Jack Duncan) to let her love live.

"I'm a little bit country, I'm a little bit rock 'n roll".

"It's disgusting how I always get the male parts!" mutters Joy Atchison during her performance.

"Say what?"

Chris Moore asks for Laura's hand in marriage in a Yenni players production.

"Ooh - you thay that our panty hothse are wrinkled?"

Jacque Horkan asks Ed Laurente to spend another night in her castle while serf Charles Prosser intelligently looks on.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus is one of the most active organizations on campus. Besides renovating their own meeting hall during the year, the Knights also assisted the mobile community by tutoring orphans in the community, visiting with the elderly and sick, and finally carrying the luggage for the contestants of the junior Miss Pagaent which is held in Mobile annually. The council was also awarded for the greatest increase in membership throughout the United States.

Collins Rossi was among the 98 students who offered their blood to the red cross through the Knights blood drive.

Grand Knight Mike Lartigue registers for the annual blood drive.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS AUXILIARY

One of the most active organizations on campus is the Womens Auxiliary to the Knights of Columbus. The group is composed of Spring Hill College women interesting in servicing the college community as well as the community of Mobile. These women work hard towards promoting social, religious and civic activities. Some of the projects they have done this year include their annual Wilmer hall picnic, Christmas projects, Easter baskets, and much more. Socially they have canoe trips each semester, and assist the Knights in their annual hall cleanup.

Pam Rayfield and Mary Sevier discuss the days activities as Lella Brooks cooks the hot dogs for the Wilmer Hall picnic.

Karen Kuers helps out the brother Knights by giving blood at their annual blood drive.

Lisa Barchie prepares to check a donors temperature during the Knights blood drive.

Erick Drlicka and other Knights help themselves to the gourmet meal prepared by the Ladies Auxiliary, while Karen Kuers assists with the drinks.

THE MOTLEY

The Motley is the literary publication of Spring Hill College, which is printed once each academic year. Any interested student is encouraged to help with the layout of the publication, and many students are also asked for submitted works to appear in the Motley. The Motley is comprised of original short stories, essays, a variety of articles on various subjects, dramas, book reviews and poetry. Also this year, the Motley has asked students for art work and original photography to aid in making the Motley more graphic.

This years editors of the Motley are John Mullin, Taylor Henry, and Pete Foote.

THE TORCH

The Spring Hill College yearbook, The Torch, was first printed in 1924. The Torch is edited by an undergraduate staff, and published by means of an overwhelming popular subscription. The Torch is a pictorial chronical of all campus activities photographed by staff artists and candid camera fans, which will serve in the years to come as a fond memory of life at Spring Hill College.

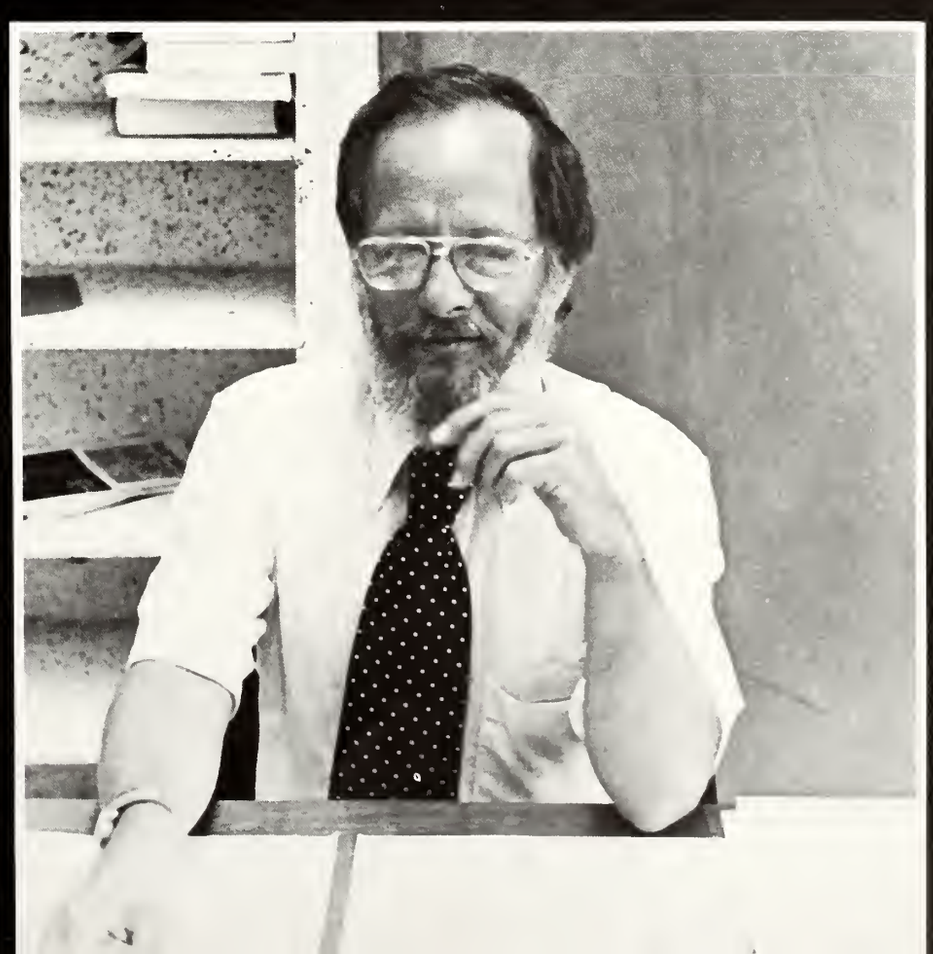
DEDICATED TO . . .

The 1977-1978 publication of the Torch is dedicated to Father James Lambert, academic dean, and Brother Gerald Landry, Director of Student Activities.

Although Father Lambert has not been the academic dean for any great length of time, he has served the college community with understanding and compassion. Father Lambert is a man of conviction who always seemed to have his door open for students and faculty alike. Whatever Father James Lambert pursues in his life, the Torch staff, and surely the entire Spring Hill community wish him the best of luck.

Brother Gerald Landry, as many students may know, has helped the Torch immensely by consenting to be the staff moderator. For this the Torch will be eternally grateful. Brother Landry has taken on many tasks as Director of Student Activities. He is always ready to greet students with a smile and handle any problems with student activities that may arise. But Brother Landry is also to be congratulated for taking his final vows into the religious community. In whatever he does, the Torch staff wishes Brother Gerald Landry the best of luck.



ROTC

Spring Hill College established in 1950 a senior division unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. The unit conducts general military science program of instruction which prepares the ROTC student for commission status in any branch of the army. Assignment to a branch is based on the needs of the army and the educational professional background of the graduate. In accordance with the contract between the academic authorities of Spring Hill College and the Secretary of the Army, participation in the program is elective on the part of the student. All regularily enrolled students are equipped with complete uniforms at no personal expense. After successful completion of the four-year course of instruction in military science and the fulfilment of the requirements for an academic degree, the student is commisioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve. The graduating second lieutenants for the 1977-1978 year are Kevin B. Whelan, Keith Parker, and Bobby Naman.

Carol McErlean and date, really having some fun at the Spring Formal.

Martha Morris, dancing the night away.

Gamma girls always know how to have a good time, but not necessarily with cokes."

Elaine Geppart seems a bit tired, or is it something else Elaine?

SIGMA BETA PHI

The annual Beta Auction always draws a lot of students to see whats for sale. It also draws a good deal of money that the Betas use for projects throughout the year.

Gerry Reynolds, a Beta brother, helps the girls out by playing auction master for the annual Beta Auction.

Sr. Ruth Hall, the Moderator of the sorority, can usually be found at an occasional party or two, mingling with the sorority members and guests.

Tina Bowersox, a Beta Alumni, frequents Beta activities, and helps the girls out whenever she can.

Kathy Graves seems to be having a remarkable time at one of the rush parties as President Margaret Simon and Debbie Gallo discuss her graceful condition.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Spring Hill College is the home of the Iota Nu chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority, a public service organization comprised of black women. Among some of their activities, the sorority girls work with the March of Dimes walk-a-thon helping in what ever way they can at some of the check points, and also volunteering at the Red Cross blood center in Mobile giving assistance to the nurses and other workers at the center. These and other service projects have kept the sisters of Delta Sigma Theta busy during the year and proves that their service extends to all areas of society.

Ken Brown looks the pitch over as Badger Believers watch.

John Cavelli heads for first while the Tulane players decide what to do with the baseball!

Teamwork is one of the Badgers qualities. Once they have such great organization, they are sure of winning!

Kevin Galvin and his team mates watch a Badger hit ball leave the field.

MEN'S TENNIS TEAM

Coach Jeannie Milling keeps a passive look on her face, while she contemplates the next match.

WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM

Standing: Katina Campbell, Ellen McFadden, Jane Wholey. Kneeling: Pam Rechtein and Casey O'Toole.

Pam Rechtein uses the power of two hands to smash the ball back to her opponent.

DISC CLUB

The Spring Hill College Disc Club was formed this year by sophomore Kip Sharpe. Even though it is their first year they are a member of the Southeastern Ultimate League, and have already participated in an ultimate competition against Emery University in Atlanta. The Club Plays mostly ultimate frisbee which is similar to soccer in game style but also a cross between basketball and football techniques. Other than ultimate the club also enjoys freestyle elimination and a strategy game called Guts. The Disc Club plans to go to New Orleans in the fall to play ultimate against Tulane University.

SAILING CLUB

The sailing club may have not seemed to be a very active organization this year, but they did have a lot of fun when they got together. Under the direction of their new commadore Dan Elcan, the club began to get organized and visit the Mobile Yatch Club regularly. They have several sail boats that are kept at the Yatch Club and are available for use at any time. In the upcoming year Dan Elcan hopes to make the Sailing Club one of the biggest things on campus.

ARMY ROTC. THE TWO-YEAR PROGRAM.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the local advertisers who helped to finance our book, and also the students and staff members who had enough faith in the Torch to purchase a copy. I would also like to apologize to any student, staff or faculty member, and organizations who do not appear in this publication. With such a small staff and limited time, it was virtually impossible to get everyone together for pictures. My special thanks to the following people:

John Burton, Student Government, John Oester, Brother Landry, and my entire staff, whom without I never would have been able to publish the 1977-1978 Torch.
